

4-H: Leaders Start Here!

Background

- 4-H: Head, Heart, Hands, and Health
- Serving the youth and communities for over a century
- Transforms and creates phenomenal leaders

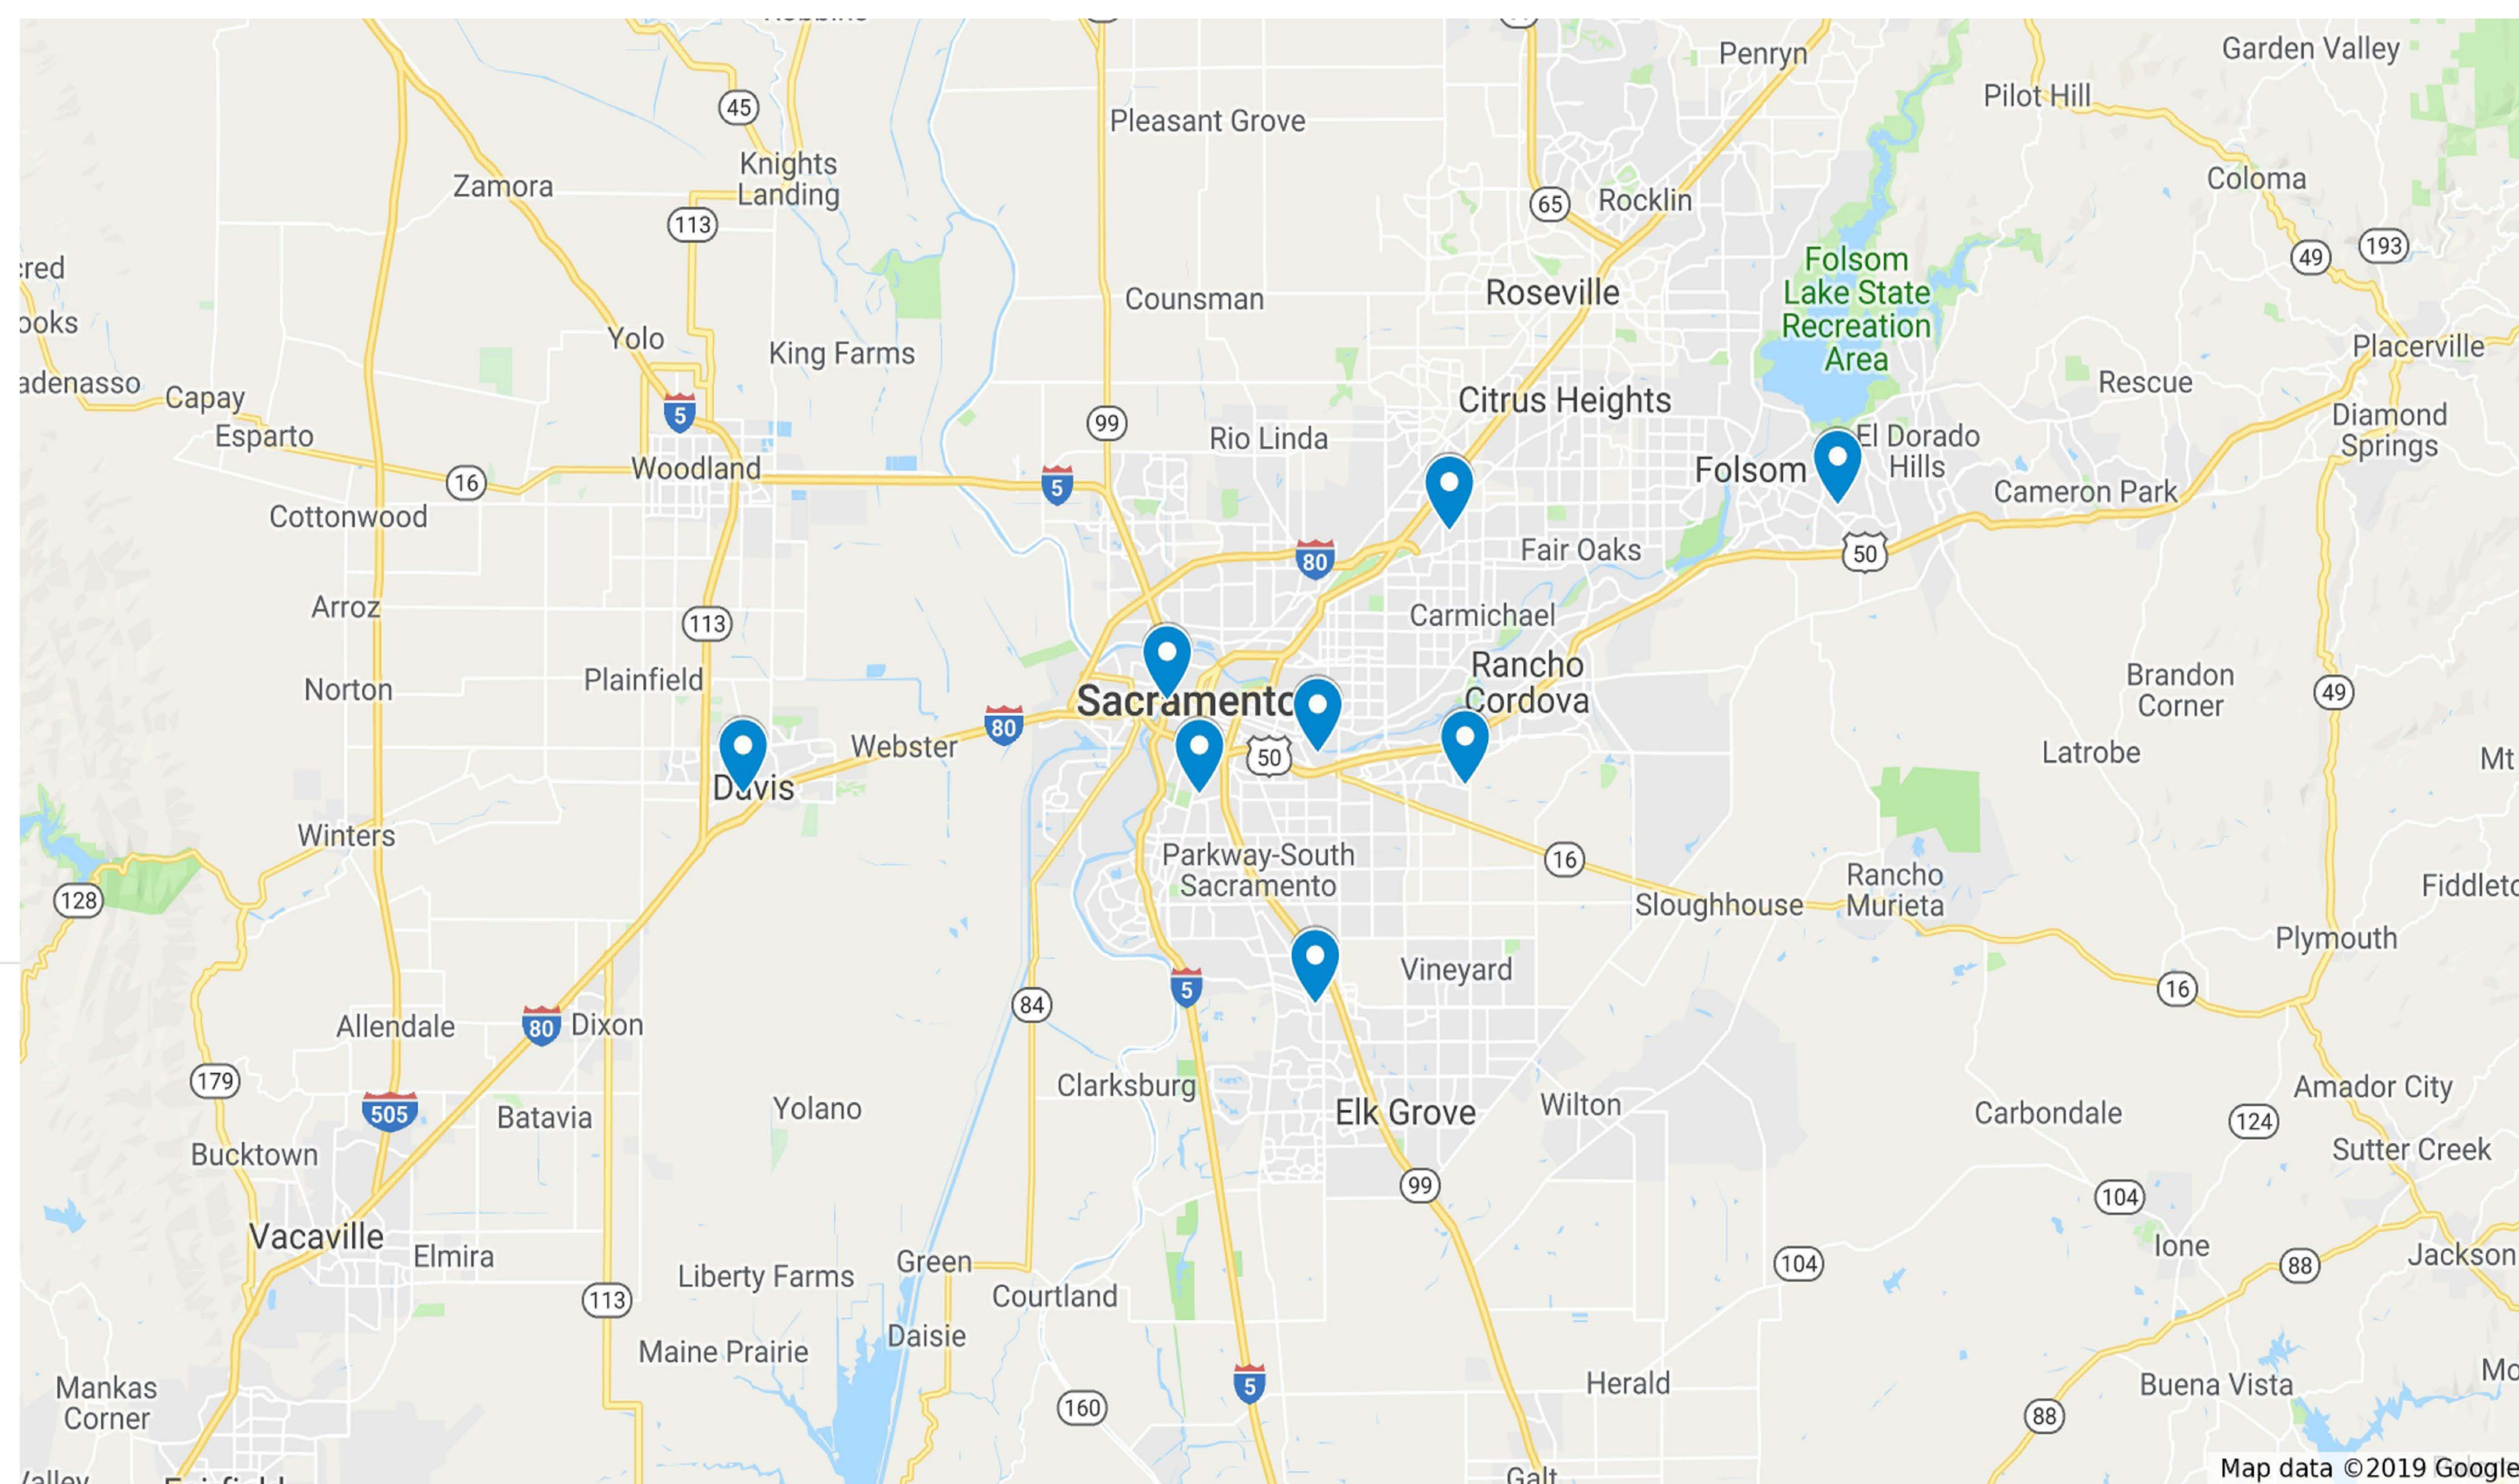

Purpose

- Search for committed volunteers to lead the Executive, Finance and Fund Development Committees
- Secure volunteers for Sacramento 4-H's leadership positions

Project Plan

- Establish communication with community colleges, universities, and Sacramento Metro Chamber
- Recruit via phone calls, emails and in-person meetings
- Provide recruitment letter to the school's Career Centers, Internship Departments, and Business Services
- Request the open committee positions be emailed weekly to the students via Listservs.

Implementation

Volunteer Recruitment Locations

University of California, Davis	Cosumnes River College
CA State University, Sacramento	Folsom Lake College
Sacramento City College	Metro Chamber
American River College	Sacramento County Cooperative Extension Office

Conclusion

- Created a contact list of stakeholders and qualified volunteers
- Multiple applications received by Sacramento 4-H staff
- Formulated a sequential plan to find potential volunteers to fill future leadership positions

Recommendations

- Prioritize time and communicate with more community colleges, universities and community members
- Facilitate debriefing sessions post professional meeting

Acknowledgements

- Jann Murray-Garcia, MD, MPH – Faculty Mentor
- Jennifer Henkens – 4-H Program Representative and Site Mentor
- Marianne Bird – 4-H Youth Development Advisor
- Jason Orta – 4-H Volunteer

